

City Times

City of Lawton Employee Newsletter

City News Highlights

From May 2022

Council Approves FY 22-23 Budget

The Lawton City Council approved the budget for the City of Lawton's 2022-2023 fiscal year during the regular Lawton City Council meeting on Tuesday, May 24. Read More

2022 Lawton Fort Sill Freedom Festival

The 2022 Lawton Fort Sill Freedom Festival is scheduled for July 1 & 2 at Elmer Thomas Park. Read More

Rec Center and Aquatics Facilities Hours Updated

During the May 10 regular Lawton City Council meeting, council voted to approve revised hours for the City of Lawton's three recreation centers along with the operating hours for the city's aquatics facilities for the 2022 season. Read More

Upcoming Events

View ongoing Library events

June 16 - Pride & Policy
(City co-sponsored event)

June 17 & 18 - Trails Fest
(City co-sponsored event)

June 18 - Juneteenth Celebration
(City co-sponsored event)

June 21-25 - 2022 Chautauqua

June 25 - Shakespeare in the Park
(City-partnered event)

COL NEWS PAGE
COL EVENTS PAGE

Staff Updates/Highlights

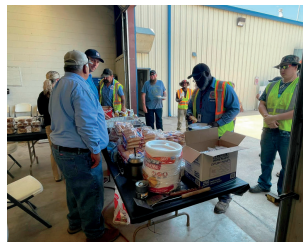

From May 2022

Mayor Issues Proclamations to Staff

At the top of the May 10 regular Lawton City Council meeting, Mayor Booker issued proclamations for National Public Works Week, Flood Awareness Month and National Police Week.

Public Works Week Cookout

Human Resources Corner

For questions, contact the HR office at 580-581-3392.

2022 Service Recognition Banquet

Thank you to everyone who made this year's Service Recognition Banquet possible! Congratulations to all those recognized for their years of service.

Courtney Waldron
Employee of the Year

Judy Franco
Supervisor of the Year

COVID-19 Updates & Resources

Information from the Oklahoma State Department of Health

City of Lawton COVID-19 Update, 1-6-2022

Vaccine Registration Portal

COVID-19 Vaccine Information

COVID-19 Booster Information